

Saturday, April 8, 2017

9:00-3:00

ECU Rivers Building

What is an edcamp? Edcamp is an "unconference" designed to provide FREE participant-driven professional development for P-12 educators with a focus on educational technology.

- Registration begins at 8:30am along with idea sharing and networking
- Sessions are 45 minutes and participants "vote with your feet"
- Bring your own device to view the live edcamp schedule and documents
- Participants will receive .6 CEU's

Who is an edcamp for? Teachers, specialists, administrators and district personnel that are ready to share, collaborate and learn about educational technology.

Session topics are created by participants, for participants.

Potential sessions include:

- Formative Assessment Tools
- Literacy Tools
- Flipped classroom and online learning
- You decide!

Win Prizes from our sponsors:

- IPEVO Document Camera and Classroom Equipment
- Subscriptions to Classcraft, MobyMax, Flipgrid and more!

Space is limited!

Register on or before March 31 at bit.ly/edcampecu.

For more information contact:

Jason Whited
whitedj@ecu.edu

Holly Fales
heathh@ecu.edu

Or scan
the code:

